Dear Louis Hauseux,

Thank you for your submission to European Conference on Visual Information Processing (EUVIP 2026). We are pleased to inform you that your paper "Multi-Modal, Training-Free Crack Extraction via Generalized Frangi Graph" (submission 81) has been accepted for presentation at the conference in the track: EUVIP2026. Congratulations!

Every submission received at least three reviews and a meta-review. The reviewing feedback is available in your CMT author console, and we kindly ask that you consider it carefully when preparing your camera-ready version.

Final camera-ready paper submission deadline is 5 August 2026, 23:59 AoE. This deadline is strict. Further instructions regarding the camera-ready submission will follow shortly.

All papers MUST have an associated registration. Information on registration is available here: <https://euvip2026.github.io/attend/>

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to us at euvip2026@uni.lu.

Congratulations once again on this achievement. We look forward to welcoming you to Luxembourg!
